

Contents

List of Contributors	ix
1. Introduction: Towards a Cultural History of Lawyers David Sugarman and W Wesley Pue	1
Part I: The Formation of Lawyers
2. Ritual, Majesty and Mystery: Collective Life and Culture among English Barristers, Serjeants and Judges, c.1500–c.1830 David Lemmings	25
3. ‘A Dry and Revolting Study’: the Life and Labours of Antebellum Law Students Ann Fidler	65
Part II: Lawyers and the Liberal State
4. ‘Finland’s Route’ of Professionalisation and Lawyer-Officials Esa Konttinen	101
5. Juridicalisation, Professionalisation and the Occupational Culture of the Advocate in the Nineteenth and the early Twentieth centuries: A Comparison of Germany, Italy and Switzerland Hannes Siegrist	123
6. From ‘Rechtsstaat’ to ‘Welfare State’: Swedish Judicial Culture in Transition 1870–1970 Kjell Å Modéer	151
Part III: Work and Representations
7. The Problems of Wealth and Virtue: The Paris Bar and the Generation of the Fin-de-Siècle John Savage	171

8. Text and Subtext: French Lawyers' Fees in the Nineteenth Century 211
Jean-Louis Halpérin
9. He Would Have Made a Wonderful Solicitor: Law, Modernity and Professionalism in Bram Stoker's Dracula 225
Anne McGillivray
10. The Syndicat de la Magistrature, 1968–1978: Elements in the History of French White Collar Professional Unionism 269
David Applebaum

Part IV: Lawyers and Colonialism

11. Together We Fall, Divided We Stand: the Victorian Legal Profession in Crisis 1890–1940 293
Rob McQueen
12. Cultural Chasm: 'Mennonite' Lawyers in Western Canada, 1900–1939 329
Harold Dick
13. Cultural Projects and Structural Transformation in the Canadian Legal Profession 367
W Wesley Pue